

ASEAN+3 Macroeconomic Research Office (AMRO)

ABOUT US

AMRO is an international organization responsible for conducting macroeconomic surveillance in the ASEAN+3 region. Its members comprise the 10 member states of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN), and China; Hong Kong, China; Japan; and Korea. AMRO was established as a company limited by guarantee in Singapore in April 2011, and transformed into an international organization in February 2016.

VISION

To be an independent, credible and professional regional organization acting as a trusted policy advisor to members in the ASEAN+3 region.

MISSION

To contribute to the macroeconomic and financial stability of the region through conducting macroeconomic surveillance and supporting the implementation of the CMIM.

CORE FUNCTIONS

To fulfill its mandate, AMRO focuses on three core functions.

Conduct macroeconomic surveillance

Assessing members' macroeconomic developments, outlook, risks, and vulnerabilities, as well as region-wide developments, spillovers and contagion risks.

Support the implementation of CMIM

Supporting members in the implementation of the CMIM, the regional financing arrangement for ASEAN+3 members.

Provide Technical Assistance

Providing secondment, consultancy, research and training programs to enhance members' capacities.

CMIM CONTRIBUTION AND MAXIMUM ARRANGEMENT AMOUNT
